DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

Group I, drawn to claims 1 - 20, which claims a computer program product for managing execution of an application according to application lifecycle which comprises ...instructions for requesting application to change its state to either active, paused, loaded or terminated ..., which classified in class 709, subclass 108.

Group II, drawn to claims 21 – 46, which claim a system for managing execution of an application according to an application lifecycle which comprises ... a signal monitor adapted for determining whether an application is present in the data stream..., an application manager that configured to store an application context which identifies a class loader, a display context, and an application environment object ..., a display manager, a first interface that is visible to an application manager and second interface that is visible to the application..., instruction for releasing memory associated with the application when the application has been terminated, instruction for unloading the classes associated with the application when the application is terminated and the instruction for de-referencing the class loader, which classified in class 709, subclass 100.

2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:
Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as in a system lacking a signal monitor adapted for determining whether an application is present in the data stream, an application manager that configured to store an application context which identifies a class loader, a display context, and an application environment object, a display manager, a first interface that is visible to an application manager and second interface that is visible to the application, instruction for releasing memory associated with the application when the application has been terminated, instruction for unloading the classes associated with the application when the application is terminated and the instruction for de-referencing the class loader, particulars. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for one group is not required for the other group, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. A telephone call was made to Elise Heilbrunn on 12/3/03 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

7. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be completed must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
